

1 ANNETTE L. HURST (State Bar No. 148738)
DANIEL N. KASSABIAN (State Bar No. 215249)
2 ELENA M. DIMUZIO (State Bar No. 239953)
HELLER EHRMAN LLP
3 333 Bush Street
San Francisco, California 94104-2878
4 Telephone: +1.415.772.6000
Facsimile: +1.415.772.6268
5 E-mail: Annette.Hurst@HellerEhrman.com
Daniel.Kassabian@HellerEhrman.com
6 Elena.DiMuzio@HellerEhrman.com

7 Attorneys for Plaintiff
LAUREATE EDUCATION, INC.

9 GAYLE M. ATHANACIO (State Bar No. 130068)
SONNENSCHN NATH & ROSENTHAL LLP
10 525 Market Street, 26th Floor
San Francisco, California 94105-2708
11 Telephone: +1.415.882.5000
Facsimile: +1.415.882.0300
12 E-mail: gathanacio@sonnenschein.com

13 Attorneys For Defendant
TEACHSCAPE, INC.

14
15 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

16
17 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

18 SAN JOSE DIVISION

19 LAUREATE EDUCATION, INC.,

20 Plaintiffs,

21 v.

22
23 TEACHSCAPE, INC.,

24 Defendant.

Case No. C 07-3225 RS

STIPULATED [AND PROPOSED]
PROTECTIVE ORDER

Judge: The Honorable Richard Seeborg

1 Pursuant to the Court's Order Re Discovery Disputes, entered on January 22, 2008,
2 the parties submit the following:

3 WHEREAS, disclosure and discovery activity in above-captioned proceeding (the 4 "Proceeding") are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private 5 information within the meaning of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c)(7) for which 6 special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than 7 prosecuting this litigation would be warranted;

8 WHEREAS, the parties, through their respective counsel, have agreed that a 9 Stipulated Protective Order preserving the confidentiality of certain documents and 10 information is necessary, and seek entry of the same the United States District Court for the 11 Northern District of California;

12 WHEREAS, the parties acknowledge that this Stipulated Protective Order creates no
13 entitlement to file confidential information under seal and further acknowledge that Civil 14 Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and reflects the standards
15 that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal; 16 and

17 WHEREAS, the parties have established good cause for entry of this Stipulated
18 Protective Order;

19 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, SUBJECT TO THE APPROVAL
20 AND ORDER OF THE COURT, THAT:

21 Definitions

22 1. For the purposes of this Order, the following definitions apply:

23 (a) Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors,
24 employees, and outside counsel (and their support staff);

25 (b) "Confidential" information or items: material or information that 26 constitutes or is comprised of trade secrets or commercial information which is not publicly 27 known and is of technical or commercial advantage to its possessor, in accordance with 28 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c)(7);

1 (c) “Highly Confidential” information or items: material or information 2 that the possessor deems especially sensitive, which may include, but is not limited to,
3 confidential research and development, financial, technical, marketing, any other sensitive 4 trade secret information, or information capable of being utilized for the preparation or 5 prosecution of a trademark, copyright, or patent application dealing with such subject
6 matter, or other information required by law or agreement to be kept confidential;

7 (d) “Protected” information: any information that is designated as 8 “Confidential” or as “Highly Confidential” information;

9 (e) Designating Party: a Party or third-party that designates information or 10 items in discovery disclosures, requests, responses, productions or depositions as 11 “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” information;

12 (f) Receiving Party: a Party that receives Protected information from a 13 Designating Party;

14 (g) Outside Counsel: attorneys who are not employees of a Party but who 15 are retained to represent or advise a Party in this action;

16 (h) In-House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a Party;

17 (i) Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel and/or In-House Counsel
18 (as well as their support staffs);

19 (j) Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter
20 pertinent to the Proceeding who has been retained by a Party or its Counsel to serve as an 21 expert witness or as a consultant in this action and who is not a past or a current employee
22 of a Party or of a competitor of a Party and who, at the time of retention, is not anticipated
23 to become an employee of a Party or a competitor of a Party. This definition includes a 24 professional jury or trial consultant retained in connection with this Proceeding;

25 (k) Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation 26 support services (e.g., photocopying; videotaping; translating; preparing exhibits or 27 demonstrations; organizing, storing, retrieving data in any form or medium; etc.) and their 28 employees and subcontractors; and

1 (l) Agreement: the “Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order” in 2 Exhibit A hereto.

3 Scope

4 2. The protections conferred by this Order cover not only Protected information
5 (as defined above), but also any information copied or extracted therefrom, as well as all 6 copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations thereof, plus testimony, conversations, or 7 presentations by parties or counsel to or in court or in other settings that might reveal 8 Protected information. Protected information of the other Party or a third-party shall not be 9 used by a Receiving Party for any research, development, manufacture, intellectual 10 property—i.e., patent, copyright, or trademark—filing or prosecution, financial, 11 commercial, marketing, business, regulatory, or other competitive purpose except as 12 required by law.

13 Duration

14 3. Even after the termination of this Proceeding, including any final judgment, 15 appeal, or settlement, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order as to Protected
16 information shall remain in effect until the Designating Party of that Protective information 17 agrees otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs.

18 Designation Procedure

19 4. Any document or thing that constitutes or contains Confidential Information 20 shall be stamped with the legend “CONFIDENTIAL,” or “CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT TO 21 PROTECTIVE ORDER,” and any document or thing that constitutes or contains Highly 22 Confidential Information shall be stamped with the legend “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
23 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES
24 ONLY – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” as reasonably appropriate by the 25 Designating Party producing it. Anything that cannot be so marked on its face shall be 26 marked by placing the appropriate legend on a container or package in which the thing is 27 produced or on a tag attached thereto. Each page of each document and each thing 28

1 produced pursuant to discovery in this action shall bear a unique identifying (Bates) number 2 with a prefix identifying the Designating Party producing it.

3 5. Any material provided for inspection in this Proceeding by a Designating 4 Party is to be treated by the Receiving Party as Highly Confidential information pending the 5 copying and delivery of any copies of the same by the Designating Party. After production,
6 the information in such documents or things will be treated consistent with any legend
7 produced on each document or thing. Inspection of documents or things by any Party shall 8 be conducted only by Outside Counsel eligible under paragraph 9(a) herein.

9 6. Any disclosure, written interrogatories, requests for admission, responses 10 thereto, or any testimony adduced at a deposition upon written questions that constitutes or 11 contains Confidential or Highly Confidential information shall be labeled or marked with 12 the legend "CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" or "HIGHLY 13 CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" as appropriate by the 14 Designating Party serving the disclosure, discovery request or response, or providing the 15 testimony on the first page of that document near the caption. Another label with the 16 appropriate legend shall be set forth at the beginning of every disclosure section, discovery 17 request or response, or testimony in response to a written question, that specifically contains 18 Protected information, so that disclosures, discovery requests or responses, or testimony that 19 do not contain Protected information are not subject to this Order.

20 7. Transcripts of deposition testimony taken in connection with this Proceeding
21 temporarily will be designated as Highly Confidential information for up to thirty (30)
22 calendar days from both Parties' receipt of the deposition transcript, and the Parties agree to 23 mark the first page of the deposition transcript with the legend "HIGHLY 24 CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" in accord with this temporary 25 designation. Within thirty (30) calendar days of such receipt, any Designating Party must 26 designate as Confidential or Highly Confidential specific testimony, by transcript line and 27 page number, in writing and deliver the designations, if any, to the Parties, whereupon each
28 Party shall attach a copy of such written designation to the face of the transcript and each

1 copy thereof in that Party's possession, custody, or control. Otherwise the Parties may treat
 2 the testimony as no longer subject to this Order. A deponent may review the transcript of 3 his or her deposition at any time.

4 8. Documents and things produced without a legend designating the material as 5 Protected shall not be subject to this Protective Order unless otherwise agreed by the Parties
 6 or ordered by the Court, or otherwise designated as Protected information in accordance 7 with the provisions of paragraphs 27-28 herein.

8 Access to Confidential Information

9 9. Highly Confidential information may be disclosed only to the following 10 "Qualified Persons:"

11 a. Outside Counsel, the paralegals, assistants, and employees of the 12 respective law firms of such Outside Counsel to the extent such persons' duties and 13 responsibilities require access to Highly Confidential information and have an express 14 agreement with their respective law firms to maintain the confidentiality of their work;

15 c. Any Expert of a Party that is assisting Outside Counsel in connection
 16 with this Proceeding and is in compliance with the requirements of paragraphs 12-13
 17 herein;

18 d. the Court and any members of its staff to whom it is necessary to 19 disclose Highly Confidential information for the purpose of assisting the Court in this 20 Proceeding and stenographic employees, court reporters, typists, interpreters, and translators
 21 for the sole purpose of recording, transcribing, translating or interpreting testimony,
 22 documents, or other information relating to this Proceeding;

23 e. any person who prepared a particular document or thing, who is either 24 listed on the document or otherwise identified in writing or electronically as a sender or 25 recipient of the document, but the disclosure shall be limited to the specific Highly 26 Confidential information disclosed in the particular document or thing;

27 f. any present officer or director of the Designating Party;
 28

1 g. any person to whom the Designating Party agrees Highly Confidential 2 information may be disclosed; and

3 h. Professional Vendors with whom Outside Counsel work in connection
4 with this Proceeding to the extent such persons have an express agreement with Outside 5 Counsel to maintain the confidentiality of their work, and provided that such personnel are 6 regularly engaged in the provision of such services, and are not engaged in the research,
7 development, manufacture, marketing, or sale of master's degree and graduate course 8 programs in the field of education.

9 10. Confidential information may be disclosed only to the following "Qualified 10 Persons:"

11 a. any of the persons entitled to receive Highly Confidential information 12 identified in paragraph 9 herein; and 13 b. the officers, directors, and employees (including In-House Counsel) of 14 the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Proceeding and 15 who have signed the Agreement;

16 11. All Protected information and any copies or extracts thereof shall be retained 17 by the Receiving Party, including Qualified Persons associated with the Receiving Party, in 18 a secure and safe area and shall exercise due and proper care with respect to the storage, 19 custody, use and/or dissemination of such material.

20 12. A Party desiring to disclose a Designating Party's Protected information to 21 any Expert before any disclosure shall:

22 a. provide to such person a copy of this Order, which he or she shall read
23 and upon reading shall complete and sign the Agreement;

24 b. obtain from such person a completed and signed copy of said
25 Agreement, a resume (curriculum vitae), and the following information, (i) a list of 26 companies for whom such person has consulted in any capacity within the last year, (ii) a 27 list of any other cases in which such person has testified as an expert at trial or by 28

1 deposition within the preceding four (4) years; and a list of all publications authored by 2 such person within the preceding ten (10) years;

3 c. for every such person, serve (by hand delivery, courier, e-mail, or 4 facsimile transmission) a copy of said Agreement, resume (curriculum vitae) and 5 information described in paragraph 12(b) upon Counsel for the Designating Party.

6 13. Upon receipt of an Agreement and resume (curriculum vitae) and information
7 described in paragraph 12(b) of an Expert, the Designating Party shall then have ten (10)
8 court days to serve (by hand delivery, same day courier, e-mail, or facsimile transmission) a 9 written objection to the proposed disclosure of its Protected information, which shall state
10 with specificity the reason(s) for such objection. If counsel for the Designating Party 11 objects within ten (10) court days, there shall be no disclosure to such Expert except by 12 further order of the Court pursuant to a motion brought by the Designating Party within 13 seven (7) court days of the service of the objection. On any motion brought pursuant to this 14 paragraph, the Designating Party shall bear the burden of showing why disclosure to that 15 Expert should be precluded. Failure to timely object and to timely file a motion with the 16 Court operates as a waiver of the objection by the Designating Party and the Expert will be 17 a Qualified Person with access to the Designating Party's Protected information.

18 14. If Outside Counsel wish to disclose Protected Material to the persons 19 described in paragraphs 9(g)-(h) herein, Outside Counsel shall first obtain a completed and 20 signed Agreement. Said Agreement shall be signed by the company, firm, or group, or solo 21 practitioner retained by the Party, and a single Agreement by the company, firm, group, or 22 solo practitioner shall be sufficient to cover all employees or other individuals paid by the 23 company, firm, or group. Outside Counsel retaining the persons described in paragraphs 24 9(g)-(h) herein shall retain the original of each such signed Agreement. Service of the 25 Agreement shall not be required.

26 15. Only Qualified Persons, the deponent, and his or her attorney (if any), shall be 27 allowed to attend any portion of a deposition in which Protected information is used or 28 elicited from the deponent. Counsel for the Designating Party may also request that all

1 persons other than the witness, the court reporter, those individuals specified in paragraph 9
2 herein, and counsel for the witness (if a third-party witness) leave the deposition room
3 during any portion of a deposition which inquires into matters deemed Highly Confidential
4 by the Designating Party. Counsel for the Designating Party may also request that all 5 persons other than the witness, the court reporter, those individuals specified in paragraphs
6 9-10 herein, and counsel for the witness (if a third-party witness) leave the deposition room
7 during any portion of a deposition which inquires into matters deemed Confidential by the 8 Designating Party. The failure of individuals other than those specified in the previous two 9 sentences to leave the deposition room during any portion of the deposition which inquires
10 into matters deemed Protected by a Designating Party, even after counsel has sought 11 judicial intervention pursuant to Civil Local Rule 37-1(b), shall constitute justification for 12 counsel to instruct the witness that he or she shall not answer the question(s) posed.

13 16. This Order shall not limit a Party's examination, at a deposition, hearing, or at 14 trial, of persons who are not authorized to receive Protected information under the terms of 15 this Order, so long as such examination concerns Protected information that the witness 16 authored, received, or previously had access to or knowledge of, as demonstrated by the 17 Protected information itself or by foundation testimony during a deposition, hearing or trial.
18 This Order shall not prevent counsel from examining a witness in a good-faith effort to 19 determine whether he or she authored, received, or previously had access to or knowledge
20 of Protected information.

21 17. Nothing shall prevent disclosure beyond the terms of this Order if the 22 Designating Party consents in writing to such disclosure, or if the Court, after reasonable 23 written notice to all affected parties, orders such disclosure.

24 18. Nothing contained in this Order shall preclude any Designating Party from 25 using its own Protected information in any manner it sees fit, without prior consent of any 26 Party or the Court.

27 19. Notwithstanding such designation, Protected information does not include 28 information obtained independent of this Proceeding as to which no obligation of 1 confidentiality applies. Accordingly, nothing in this Order shall prevent any person,

 2 including a Qualified Person, from making use of any information that is designated 3 Protected information if such information:

4 a. was lawfully in his or her possession prior to receipt under the 5 provisions of this Order;

6 b. was or becomes available to the public through no fault of a Receiving 7 Party; or

8 c. was or is obtained from a source not under an obligation of secrecy to 9 the Designating Party.

10 20. Nothing in this Order shall restrict any Party's Outside Counsel from 11 rendering advice to its clients with respect to this Proceeding and, in the course thereof,
 12 relying upon Highly Confidential information, provided that in rendering such advice,
 13 counsel shall not disclose any other Designating Party's Highly Confidential information
 14 other than in a manner provided for in this Order.

15 Challenging Designation of Confidential Information

16 21. A Party shall not be obligated to challenge the propriety of a designation of 17 Protected information (or change in designation) at the time the designation is made, and a 18 failure to do so shall not preclude a subsequent challenge thereto.

19 22. In the event that a Party disagrees at any time with a Protected information
 20 designation made by a Designating Party, the following procedure shall be used:

21 (a) A Party that elects to initiate a challenge to a Designating Party's 22 confidentiality designation must do so in good faith and must begin the process by 23 conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not 24 sufficient) with counsel for the Designating Party. In conferring, the challenging Party must 25 explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must 26 give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider 27 the circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the 28 chosen designation. A challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge

1 process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first, or the Designating Party 2 has failed to engage in this meet and confer process within ten (10) court days of the 3 challenging Party's first attempt to begin the process.

4 (b) A Party that elects to press a challenge to a confidentiality designation
5 after considering the justification offered by the Designating Party may file and serve a 6 motion under Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if 7 applicable) that identifies the challenged material and sets forth in detail the basis for the 8 challenge. Each such motion must be accompanied by a competent declaration that affirms 9 that the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed in paragraph 10 22(a) and that sets forth with specificity the justification for the confidentiality designation
11 that was given by the Designating Party in the meet and confer dialogue.

12 (c) On any motions arising out of the designation of any material as 13 Protected information under this Order, the burden of justifying the designation shall lie
14 with the Designating Party. Until the Court rules on the challenge, all Parties shall continue 15 to afford the material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the 16 Designating Party's designation.

17 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection

18 23. Each Designating Party must take care to limit its designations to specific 19 material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. A Designating Party must take care 20 to designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written 21 communications that qualify – so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or 22 communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the 23 ambit of this Order.

24 24. Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations
25 that are shown to be clearly unjustified, or that have been made for an improper purpose 26 (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process, or to impose 27 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties), expose the Designating Party to 28 sanctions.

25. If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it designated as Protected do not qualify for protection at all, or do not qualify for the level of protection initially asserted, that Designating Party must promptly notify all Parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

Inadvertent Production/Use of Confidential Information and Changes in Designation

26. Inadvertent production of any document or information without a designation as Protected information will not be deemed to waive a later claim as to its confidential nature or stop the Designating Party from designating said document or information as Protected information at a later date.

27. Any Designating Party may change a designation to Confidential or Highly Confidential information (or withdraw a designation) regarding any material that it has produced, provided, however, that such change in designation shall be effective only as of the date of such change. Such change in designation (or withdrawal) shall be accomplished by notifying each Party in writing of such change in designation (or withdrawal).

28. Upon receipt of any written change in designation per paragraph 27, a Party shall: (i) not make any further disclosure or communication of such newly designated Protected material except as provided for in this Order; (ii) take reasonable steps to notify any persons known to have possession of any Protected material with the original designation of the effect of such a change in designation under this Order; and (iii) promptly retrieve all copies and transcriptions of such originally designated Protected material from any persons known to have possession of any such originally designated material who are not Qualified Persons under paragraphs 9-10 herein in light of the change of designation to the extent practicable. Properly marked documents shall be promptly provided by the Designating Party of any such newly designated Protected material.

29. Under no circumstances shall a Designating Party change or remove the designation of Protected information, or object to such change or removal, to vex or harass another Party.

1 30. If Protected information is used during depositions in contravention of other
2 provisions of this Order, it shall not lose its confidential status through such use, and 3 counsel shall exercise their best efforts and take all steps reasonably required to protect its 4 confidentiality during and subsequent to such use. If Protected information is disclosed to a 5 deposition witness in contravention of other provisions of this Order, and the witness has 6 testified concerning that information, the witness may be cross-examined with respect to the 7 document(s) or information disclosed during that deposition.

8 31. If Protected information is disclosed to any person other than in the manner
9 authorized by this Order, the Party responsible for the disclosure shall within five (5) court
10 days of learning of such disclosure inform the Designating Party of all pertinent facts 11 relating to such disclosure and shall use reasonable efforts to obtain the prompt return of 12 any such Protected information and to bind each unauthorized person or third-party who 13 received such information to the terms of this Order by providing a copy of this Order to 14 such unauthorized person or third-party and requesting such unauthorized person or 15 third-party to sign the Agreement. The requirements set forth in this paragraph shall not 16 prevent the Designating Party from applying to the Court for further or additional relief.

17 Inadvertent Production/Use of Privileged Information

18 32. If information subject to a claim of attorney-client privilege, attorney work 19 product immunity or other legal privilege protecting information from discovery is 20 inadvertently produced in any way, such production shall not prejudice or otherwise 21 constitute a waiver (subject matter or otherwise) of, or estoppel as to, any claim of privilege, 22 work product immunity, or other ground for withholding production to which the Party or 23 other person otherwise would be entitled. If a written claim of inadvertent production is 24 made by a Party or third-party to a Receiving Party pursuant to this paragraph with respect
25 to information or a document supplied to a Receiving Party, upon the Receiving Party's 26 receipt of such written notification of the Party's or third-party's discovery of inadvertent 27 production of such information or document, the Receiving Party shall:

1 (a) not make any further copies or other reproductions or transcriptions of 2 the inadvertently disclosed information or document; and

3 (b) destroy or return to the Designating Party every original and every 4 copy, reproduction, or transcription of all such inadvertently produced information or 5 documents possessed by the receiving party and by those persons to whom the Receiving 6 Party may have disclosed such information.

7 33. However, recognizing the need for the Parties to prepare for their cases based 8 on the discovery that is produced, if any information, document, or tangible thing is used in 9 a court hearing, deposition, as an exhibit to a motion, is referenced in an Expert's report or 10 pretrial order, or is otherwise used openly in the case, any claim of inadvertent production 11 must be made within ten (10) court days after such use.

12
13 Party's Disclosure of Confidential Information of Nonparties
or Pursuant To Subpoena

14 34. A Party may temporarily withhold production of otherwise discoverable 15 information sought in a discovery request (e.g., interrogatory, request for production, 16 request for admission) if the Party reasonably believes it is under an obligation to a
17 third-party not to disclose such information. In such an event, except for information 18 subject to a protective order or confidentiality order by another court, such Party shall:

19 (a) timely serve a written objection to the production of the information in 20 question on the basis of its obligation to a third-party not to disclose such information;

21 (b) promptly provide to the third-party whose confidentiality interests are 22 implicated (i) notice of the pending request to disclose the information in question, and (ii) a 23 copy of this Order; or

24 (c) timely move the Court for an order to preclude production.

25 35. Nothing in paragraph 34 shall prevent a third-party from seeking an order 26 specifically to preclude disclosure of its Protected information.

27 36. Any Party that is served with a subpoena or other notice compelling the 28 production of any Protected information produced by the other Party or a third-party is

1 obligated to give prompt telephonic and written notice (by hand delivery, courier or 2 facsimile transmission) to that original producing party of such subpoena or other notice. In 3 any event, such notice shall be given within five (5) court days of service of the subpoena or 4 other notice. If the original Designating Party takes steps to oppose the subpoena, then the 5 Party served with the subpoena shall not disclose the pertinent information until the Court
6 has resolved the issue. Absent Court order, production or disclosure shall not be made
7 before notice is given to the original Designating Party and the original Designating Party
8 has had at least ten (10) court days to react after receiving such notice. Upon receiving such 9 notice, the original Designating Party shall bear the burden to oppose, if it deems 10 appropriate, the subpoena on grounds of confidentiality.

11 Use of Confidential Information in Filings and in Open Court

12 37. Nothing herein shall be construed to affect in any manner the admissibility at 13 trial of any document, testimony, or other evidence.

14 38. Without written permission from the Designating Party or a court order 15 secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Receiving Party may not file in 16 the public record in this action any Protected information, including quotations or other 17 parts thereof, of the Designating Party. A Designating Party may file in the public record 18 any Protected information it has designated and such filing, unless inadvertent, will result in 19 that information no longer being subject to this Order.

20 39. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected information must comply 21 with Civil Local Rule 79-5. In addition, the Party should indicate the source and level of 22 confidentiality on the first page of the pleading or other document to be filed under seal in 23 the form "SUBMITTED UNDER SEAL – [HIGHLY] CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION 24 OF [DESIGNATING PARTY]" so as to enable the Receiving Parties to identify the 25 appropriate Qualified Persons that may view the filing.

26 40. To the extent that a Receiving Party (or a witness called by a Receiving Party)
27 contemplates using Protected information that was produced by another Designating Party, 28 at trial or a hearing in open court in this Proceeding, the Receiving Party shall have the

1 obligation to provide notice (either in writing or in open court) to the Designating Party of 2 its intent. The Designating Party shall have an opportunity to respond to that notice before 3 any of its Protected information may be used by any Party at trial or a hearing in open court.
4 In the event that any Protected information is used at trial or hearing in open court in this
5 Proceeding because a request to conduct the trial or hearing in closed court or in camera
6 was not granted, the Protected information shall remain subject to this Order.

7 Disposition of Confidential Materials upon Conclusion of Proceeding

8 41. Upon the conclusion of this Proceeding, at the written request and option of 9 the Designating Party, all Protected information and any and all copies and transcriptions
10 thereof, shall be destroyed or returned within ninety (90) calendar days to the Designating 11 Party, provided, however, that Outside Counsel may retain all documents and things that 12 contain or reflect their attorney work product (e.g., notes, memoranda, drafts of pleadings, 13 deposition summaries, document review summaries, documents reviewed in preparation for 14 depositions, hearings, or trial whether introduced or not), all correspondence, all pleadings, 15 all deposition transcripts, all Expert reports, all deposition, hearing and trial exhibits, and all
16 court filed documents even though they contain Protected information, but such retained
17 work product and documents shall remain subject to the terms of this Order. Accordingly, 18 upon final termination of this action, no one other than Outside Counsel shall retain any 19 Protected information obtained in the course of this Proceeding. At the written request of 20 the Designating Party, any person or entity having received recordings, notes, memoranda, 21 summaries or other written materials, and all copies thereof, relating to or containing its 22 Protected information shall deliver to the Designating Party a declaration confirming that 23 reasonable efforts have been made to assure that all such Protected information and any 24 copies thereof, any and all records, notes, memoranda, summaries or other written material
25 regarding the Protected information (except for attorney work product and documents 26 permitted to be retained by Outside Counsel as stated above), have been destroyed or 27 delivered in accordance with the terms of this Order.

Miscellaneous Provisions

42. This Order shall be binding upon the parties to this Proceeding and signatories to the Agreement, including their successor(s) and assigns, and their respective attorneys, agents, representatives, officers and employees.

43. This Order shall apply to all information and material produced in this Proceeding, including all previously produced information and material prior to the execution of this Order by the Court.

44. Unless the parties stipulate otherwise, evidence of the existence or nonexistence of a designation under this Order shall not be admissible as proof of a claim or defense in this Proceeding and in no way constitutes an admission by any Party that any information designated pursuant to this Order is or is not proprietary, confidential, and/or a trade secret.

45. By written agreement of the Parties, or upon motion and order of the Court, the terms of this Order may be amended or modified.

46. Nothing in this Order shall prejudice the right of any Party to oppose production of any information for lack of relevance, privilege, or any ground other than confidentiality.

47. In the event that a new Party is added, substituted, or brought in, this Order will be binding on and inure to the benefit of the new Party, subject to the right of the new Party to seek relief from or modification of this Order.

48. The entry of this Order does not prevent any Party from seeking a further order of this Court pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), and each Party reserves the right to seek modification of this Order in the future.

///

///

///

///

///

1 IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.

2
3 Dated: February 4, 2008

HELLER EHRMAN LLP

4 By _____/s/ DANIEL N. KASSABIAN
5 Attorneys for Plaintiff
6 LAUREATE EDUCATION, INC.

7
8 Dated: February 4, 2008

SONNENSCHN NATH & ROSENTHAL LLP

9 By _____/s/ GAYLE M. ATHANACIO
10 Attorneys for Defendant
11 TEACHSCAPE, INC.

12 PURSUANT TO THE STIPULATION, IT IS SO ORDERED.

13 Dated:

14
15 _____
16 The Honorable Richard Seeborg
17 UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

EXHIBIT A

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

LAUREATE EDUCATION, INC.,

Plaintiff,

v.

TEACHSCAPE, INC.,

Defendant.

Case No. C 07-3225 RS

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND

Judge: The Honorable Richard Seeborg

I, _____, of _____ declare under penalty of perjury of the laws of the United States that I have read in its entirety and understand the Stipulated Protective Order that was issued by the United States District Court for the Northern District of California on _____ in the case of Laureate Education, Inc. v. Teachscape, Inc., No. C 07-3225 RS.

I agree to comply with and to be bound by all the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order and I understand and acknowledge that failure to so comply could expose me to sanctions and punishment in the nature of contempt. I solemnly promise that I will not disclose in any manner any Protected information or item that is subject to this Stipulated Protective Order to any person or entity except in strict compliance with the provisions of this Order, and will use only for purposes of this action, any information, documents or things designated as containing Protected information, including the substance and any copy, summary, abstract, excerpt, index or description of such material, that is disclosed to me as well as any knowledge or information derived from any of the above mentioned items

1 which I receive in this action, except as allowed in accordance with this Order. I will take
2 reasonable steps to restrict access to any Protected information to only those Qualified 3 Persons authorized by the Stipulated Protective Order to have such access.

4 I will return all materials containing Protected information that come into my 5 possession, and all documents and things that I have prepared relating thereto, to counsel for 6 the party by whom I am employed or retained, or from whom I received such material when 7 requested to do so.

8 I further agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the 9 Northern District of California for the purpose of enforcing the terms of this Stipulated 10 Protective Order, even if such enforcement proceedings occur after termination of this 11 action.

12 I hereby appoint _____ of _____ 13 as my California agent for service of process in connection with this action or any 14 proceedings related to enforcement of this Stipulated Protective Order.

15 Date: _____

16 City and State where sworn and signed: _____

17 _____
18 _____
19 _____
20 _____
21 _____
22 _____
23 _____
24 _____
25 _____
26 _____
27 _____
28 _____